IN THE SUPREME COURT OF FLORIDA

Case No. SC2025-1438 In re: Judge Diana M. Tennis

INQUIRY CONCERNING A JUDGE, NO. 23-184 RE: DIANA M. TENNIS

NOTICE OF CORRECTION TO PROPOSED AMICUS CURIAE BRIEF

COMES NOW the undersigned, Devo Seereeram, and respectfully submits the following correction to the proposed Amicus Curiae Brief filed on October 2, 2025:

On Page 2, the reference to Judge Ernest A. Kollra inaccurately suggests he was reprimanded for campaign contribution violations. This is incorrect.

In 2019, the Florida Supreme Court publicly reprimanded Judge Kollra for engaging in partisan political activity during his campaign, in violation of Canon 7 of the Florida Code of Judicial Conduct. Specifically, Judge Kollra identified himself as a Republican to a news outlet, attended a partisan organization's endorsement event, and promoted that endorsement in a stump speech.

He did not make or solicit campaign contributions, and the reprimand was not related to campaign finance violations.

This correction is submitted to ensure factual accuracy and preserve the integrity of the record.

Respectfully submitted,
